

INSTRUCTIONS TO ENVIRONMENTAL GEOSCIENCES AUTHORS

ARTICLES

Articles are papers of major extent and contain detailed geoenvironmental data that support original interpretations or methods. Article length is not to exceed 20 double-spaced typewritten pages.

DISCUSSIONS AND REPLIES

Discussions and Replies pertain to articles published in Environmental Geosciences, are brief, to the point, and are not to exceed four (4) manuscript pages, including figures and tables. Longer text is subject to approval by the DEG Editor-in-Chief.

MANUSCRIPT REVIEW

The DEG Editor-in-Chief makes the final decision concerning the acceptance or rejection of a paper. Manuscripts are reviewed by two or more referees for technical merit, quality of scientific content, and utility of the results for practicing geologists. Discussions and Replies are reviewed by the DEG Editor-in-Chief.

RESEARCH MONOGRAPHS

The DEG Editor-in-Chief will consider a case by case basis manuscripts that exceed normal page limits for articles. Authors are requested to contact the Editor-in-Chief (degjournal@aapg.org) before submitting monographs through the Rapid Review system.

PAGE CONTRIBUTIONS

Financial contributions to the Division of Environmental Geosciences from its authors are of great assistance. If organizational funding is available, authors are encouraged to contribute $50 per page. Inability to contribute will not prejudice the editorial processing or publication of an article.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMITTAL

Format your manuscript using double-spaced lines and 12-point type, and submit one of three ways.

- Online: Submit your entire manuscript through the Rapid Review tracking system (www.rapidreview.com).

- Print: Print and/or copy your manuscript on only one side of each sheet. Send two copies of the manuscript and figures to DEG Editorial Assistant, AAPG, 1444 S. Boulder Ave., Tulsa, Oklahoma 74119-3604. Include your computer files on a disk or CD. Headquarters staff will enter your contact information into Rapid Review and upload your files.

- Online and Print: Complete the online submittal forms through Rapid Review (www.rapidreview.com) and mail your electronic files on disk or CD, along with one copy of the complete text, tables, and figures to DEG Editorial Assistant, AAPG, P.O. Box 979, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74101-0979.

MANUSCRIPT PARAMETERS

- Use metric units of measure with the English unit equivalent in parentheses or, conversely, English units with metric equivalents in parentheses. Laboratory measurements do not require conversions.

- Do not use abbreviations except for units of measure.
- Limit the use of acronyms.
- Cite figures in numerical order.
- Cite all references and include complete information for each citation in "References Cited" section.

- Limit the length of the abstract to no more than 250 words.
- Follow the North American Stratigraphic Code (available from the AAPG Bookstore).

MANUSCRIPT SECTIONS

Organize manuscripts as follows.

- Title
- Author(s) and address(es)
- Acknowledgments
- Abstract
- Text

- Appendix(es)
- References Cited
- Figure captions (separate sheet)
